

The Pilgrim Prayer

May we remember to contemplate and appreciate the beauty, to fall in love with the

Simplicity of things, to overcome obstacles, dangers, and schemes along the way.

And when we reach Jerusalem, let us gaze upon it with

Gratitude for the privilege of approaching the heritage of our ancestors who ascended pilgrimage and those who will pilgrim in the future to their significant place in Jerusalem.

May we have the wisdom and strength to walk with

Humility and respect, to honor our paths, the paths of our surroundings, and the land upon which we walk.

May we have peace and quite to reach out true home walk through an inner journey with intention to reflect on our actions and our path in life and when we meet friends and family along the way, May we have the ability to cherish and

Appreciate the good with gratitude

And when we reach the destination of our desire,

Jerusalem, may a strong emotion of bravery and a great joy develop within us, so that we can understand the depth of the place and its prefund history, and that we may merit to experience it with honor and holiness.
